Eureka is a special place.
The redwoods thrive here, unlike anywhere in the world.

Redwood trees are almost as old as dino's and are 300 ft tall

My Home: Eureka California

The population is 26,913 and there are three colleges in my area. My home town has very old and beautiful victorian homes.

My home: California

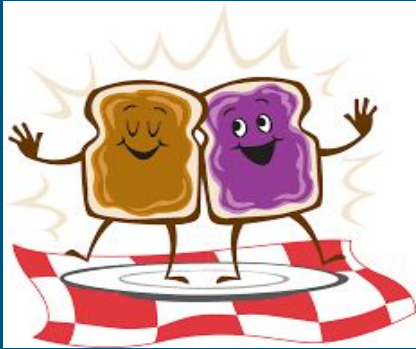

Eureka is very North in California, but I am still able to travel to all of California rather often like big cities such as L.A. or San Francisco.
